About this item

This is a square, 4 cup, 9-inch (handle to handle) Corning Ware casserole dish in great condition, with glass lid. It also comes with its metal trivet serving stand. It is from the blue cornflower collection. Highly collectible!

The base features the sunburst stamp and also notes that it was made in Canada. The metal trivet is marked Corning Ware, P-11-M-1. The lid is marked E-3.

The lid and casserole dish are in great condition with no chips or cracks. Inside is very clean and only surface wear on the outside. The trivet is also in great condition.

Add this to your Corning Ware collection, display it in your retro kitchen or use it!
